

Acknowledgements

The Technical Assistance Collaborative, Inc. (TAC) thanks the Melville Charitable Trust for the generous support that made the publication of Priced Out in 2014 possible, and for their continued commitment to improving the lives of people with disabilities and people who are homeless.

TAC also acknowledges the valuable contributions to Priced Out made by these individuals: Andrew Sperling, National Alliance on Mental Illness, and T.J. Sutcliffe, The Arc of the United States; Elina Bravve and her colleagues from the National Low Income Housing Coalition; and Jenny Chan, Technical Assistance Collaborative. Special thanks to Ann O'Hara, who conceived and wrote the first eight editions of Priced Out.

Priced Out in 2014 is the latest in a series of housing publications created as a joint effort by TAC and the Washington, D.C.-based Consortium for Citizens with Disabilities (CCD) Housing Task Force. TAC is a national nonprofit organization that works to achieve positive outcomes on behalf of people with disabilities and people who are homeless by providing state-of-the-art information, capacity building, and technical expertise to organizations and policymakers in the areas of mental health, substance abuse, human services, and affordable housing.
